

4-H Ashland County: Current List of Clubs

Club Name & Contacts	Club Description	Club Name & Contacts	Club Description
Brunswillow Busy Beavers Jennifer Nortunen 715-278-3831 Marengo, WI	The Brunswillow Busy Beavers is a traditional 4-H club focusing on serving those in our community. Through community service projects, members gain real-world experience and practice important habits like leadership, problem-solving, and time-management. Club events are family focused and are a blend of educational and social interactions.	Pearce Peppers Gina Pearce 715-682-3742 Town of Gingles Area	Pearce Peppers is a small club that offers a wide variety of projects but primarily centers on Cloverbuds and 1st time 4-H members. This is a great way for our youngest and newest 4-H members to get involved and become comfortable within the 4-H community.
Chequamegon Area Nordic Ski (CANSKI) Kate Wallner 715-208-0664 Ashland & Bayfield Counties	The mission of 4-H CANSKI is to promote fun, fitness, safety, and excellence in the lifelong sport of cross-country skiing. It offers ongoing instruction, social opportunities, and leadership development for skiers of all levels. We emphasize technique, conditioning, safety, and mentoring, all in a fun filled atmosphere in the great outdoors. Register with CANSKI and/or Fundraise via the Ashwabay Summit Race!	Rezberries Liz Arbuckle 715-630-8672 Odanah, WI	The Rezberries bring Native American values & traditions to 4-H activities, with emphasis on community service in the Bad River community. Members enjoy beautification projects, making and distributing food and crafts for Elders, and gathering socially to do constructive and useful projects in the community. They also enjoy interacting with the larger 4-H family in Ashland County, making bigger connections in the area and interacting with other clubs. Anytime they do something together with a purpose, they have fun.
Market Sale Gina Pearce 715-682-3742 White River Town Hall	The Market sale club offers a variety of projects with emphasis on Animals to be sold at auction during the Ashland County Fair. In the past members have participated in the 4th of July Parade and we also raised money and donations for cattle barn improvements at the fairgrounds.	Ashland County Sewing Club (ACSC) Jeanne Pearce 715-292-0772 Vaughn Public Library	ACSC is for beginner-level sewing skills. This includes hand-sewing, embroidery, basic sewing machine use, and design. Members create things like pillowcases, quilts, and more based on youth interests! Anyone ages 9 and up may join. Required materials are a sewing box (provided), a sewing book (provided), a sewing machine (contact the leader if you have questions on how to accommodate this).
Outdoor Adventure Leadership (OAL) Katherine Jenkins 715-746-2224 Ashland County	OAL is a partnership program with Northland College designed for youth in 6 th -9 th grades. Participants commit to weekly outdoor leadership focused classes offered during fall and winter. At the end of each session, participants develop a plan for a final adventure weekend with the support of staff, using skills learned throughout the program.	Ashland County Leaders Association Jennifer Nortunen 715-278-3831 Ashland County	This organization is instrumental and essential to 4-H programming. For more information on their work, please visit https://ashland.extension.wisc.edu/4-h-youth-development/volunteers-and-leaders-association/

Visit <https://ashland.extension.wisc.edu/4-h-youth-development/clubs/> to explore further!

